Your path to global governance expertise

Specialisation

Become an expert in International Economics or in Global Politics by choosing the track that best fits your future plans.

- Global Economics: Become an expert in international economics. Understand how the world economy works by analysing a particular market or conducting a macroeconomic analysis of a country.
- Global Politics: Understanding world politics by learning about globalisation, international policies and conflict management, together with geopolitics and natural resources.

Internationality

Esade will give you a global perspective by providing the opportunity to participate in different international experiences:

- One semester abroad studying in a university within the geographic area of your interest.
- Study Tour at European Institutions.
- Study Abroad at the Fletcher School in Boston.
- Solidarity-oriented internships (SUD) in countries such as Bolivia, Cambodia or Tanzania.
- International Moot Courts.

Career Opportunities

You will be prepared to thrive and to successfully boost your international career.

- Pursue a diplomatic or consular career.
- Serve as an advisor to organisations such as the UN, NATO or the EU.
- Work as an analyst for foreign trade consortiums or NGOs.
- Become an expert consultant in global politics or economics.
